PRESS RELEASE ISSUED BY THE MUSEUM OF NORTH CRAVEN LIFE, SETTLE

News from the Folly

31 August 2005

This year's special exhibitions, 'Stitching the story: the making of the Airton tapestry' and 'On the Home Front: North Craven in wartime' have proved very popular with visitors from near and far. Many faces in the wartime photographs and video had already been identified, but some visitors during the summer have been able to provide further identifications and have also shared valuable additional information about the war years in North Craven.

Although our main season ends on 30 September, we shall be open for half term on 22, 23 and 25 October and readers of Community News are reminded that group visits are always welcome by prior arrangement. So, if you have not yet been in to have a look round this year there is still time! Enquiries about special visits may be made on (015242) 51388 or (01729) 822361
