

Archive Alive!

TOLLS OF CLAPHAM FAIR, 1852.

NOTICE

IS HEREBY GIVEN,

That Any One Evading or Refusing to pay the usual TOLLS reserved to the Lord of the Manor of Clapham, and payable at the Fair, for Stands or Stalls, in the Fair, and for Goods purchased at the Fair, and which TOLLS are now let and payable to Mr. Robert Dugdale, will be proceeded against for the recovery thereof.

GEO: HARTLEY,

Steward of the Manor of Clapham.

Settle, September, 24th 1852.

WILLIAM WALKER, PRINTER, SETTLE.

Celebrating North Craven Past and Present

Projects by groups in North Craven, inspired by the museum's fascinating collection of local books, documents and photographs.

