

PRESS RELEASE ISSUED BY THE MUSEUM OF NORTH CRAVEN LIFE, SETTLE

Talks at Museum in November

17 Oct 2008

The Museum of North Craven Life has organised two talks next month. Margaret Graham will describe “Wigglesworth 100 years ago” on Thursday November 20 at 7pm and Colin Harding, from the National Media Museum in Bradford, will explain the technology used by Horners – who were photographers in Settle in the late 19th and early 20th centuries – on Thursday November 27 at 7pm. Tickets for both cost £5 (including refreshments). The Museum – in The Folly – is due to close for winter on Tuesday October 28 and will only open for special events.
