A Malham Family of Painters: Constance Pearson, Philippa Holmes, Katharine Holmes: Opening

30 Mar 2010

Paintings by three generations of women from a Yorkshire family are coming home to the Dales. The exhibition “A Malham Family of Painters: Constance Pearson, Philippa Holmes, Katharine Holmes” opened at The Folly, Settle on 30 March after its first showing, to great acclaim, at The Stanley and Audrey Burton Gallery, University of Leeds in the summer of 2009. Alongside the paintings are displays of original letters and household objects from the family home in Malham, together with other items capturing the essence of life in the Dale. The exhibition continues until 27 July and The Folly is open from 10.30am - 4.30pm on Tuesdays, Saturdays, Sundays and Bank Holidays.
