

PRESS RELEASE ISSUED BY THE MUSEUM OF NORTH CRAVEN LIFE, SETTLE

Bill Mitchell at The Folly

14 June 2012

As the exhibition featuring the story of Dalesman magazine reaches its final fortnight in Settle's historic Folly, it is specially appropriate that Dr Bill Mitchell should be giving a talk about the magazine's early years and all that it has meant to its loyal readers since the very first issue in 1939. Bill, who was associated with the magazine for 40 years, is uniquely qualified to tell the story of Dalesman, since he worked with Harry J Scott the founding editor from 1948 and then took over the editorial role himself. In his talk he will tell some vivid stories of the characters and incidents which made up those all-important early years. Bill's talk takes place on Friday, 15 June at 7.30 pm in The Folly. Tickets (£6, including refreshments) should be booked in advance from The Folly or on 01729 822893. Web: www.ncbpt.org.uk/folly
