

PRESS RELEASE ISSUED BY THE MUSEUM OF NORTH CRAVEN LIFE, SETTLE

Last chance to see 'Make it Slow' at The Folly

23 June 2014

There are only a few more days left in which to see the highly-praised 'Make it Slow' exhibition at The Folly, before it closes on 29 June. The exhibition features the work of six of the UK's leading craftmakers and includes ceramics, jewellery, decorative braiding and ropework, toolmaking and willow sculpture. The Folly has been described by many visitors as the ideal location for the work, which looks truly stunning in the setting of this historic house. So, don't leave it too late, come along and enjoy this very special show.
