

PRESS RELEASE ISSUED BY THE MUSEUM OF NORTH CRAVEN LIFE, SETTLE

26 Nov 2015

News from The Folly (Vibrant Settle newsletter, Dec 2015)

If you are in Settle on Saturday December 12th, remember we will be open in the morning from 10.00 until 12.00 for our popular annual Yuletide special. Make sure you arrive by 10.30 to enjoy this year's festive offering from Octameron who will be singing in the Hall until 11.00. Refreshments will be on sale from 10.00; follow the tempting aromas of warm mince pies and Margaret's legendary mulled wine to the Parlour! Our shop is always worth checking for stocking fillers and unusual gifts. The first floor of the Folly will be open and this will be your very last chance to catch the fascinating display of Burton pottery and read the history of this once thriving local industry on the banks of the Greta.

Later the same day, December 12th, we open up again from 2.00 to 4.30 for some crafty Christmas Fun when the whole family can enjoy making lanterns, masks and Christmas Cards. During the afternoon a winner will be drawn from the entries to this year's competition for younger visitors.

The house and museum are now closed until March 22nd 2016. Many of us will continue working behind the scenes through the winter and you can still get in touch on the numbers below.
