

Museum of North Craven Life
The Folly, Victoria Street, Settle 2006

NEW EXHIBITION
CONNECTIONS
Artists and Writers in North Craven

Spans 200 years of artists and writers inspired by or associated with the area

- Links with famous names, Turner, Ruskin and Charles Kingsley
- Well-known contemporary artists and writers
- Some items for sale
- Story of ‘The Dalesman’ magazine
- Of interest to local people and visitors

PERMANENT EXHIBITION of North Craven Life, farming history, local geology and building the Settle-Carlisle Railway, with model of Settle Station in time of the Midland Railway

Visit a Grade I Listed Building dating from 1679 with many original features intact.

Admission: £1.50 Concessions £1.00
 16 and under, free

Party visits by appointment, phone 015242 51388 (Hon Curator) or 01729 822361

E-mail enquiries: folly@ncbpt.org.uk

Web site: www.ncbpt.org.uk/folly

Open all Bank Holiday weekends:

Easter, Friday 14 – Tuesday 18 April

Saturday 29 April – Tuesday 2 May

Saturday 27 – Tuesday 30 May and every Tuesday, Saturday and Sunday from 1 July – 30 September

10.30am – 4.30pm

Routes to The Folly

- From TIC - go towards Midland Bank, right into High Street past Talbot, continue and The Folly is on left in Victoria Street
 - From Station - to main road (Duke Street) along Chapel Street (opposite Social Club) to High Street and Victoria Street
-